

Tickets on Sale for Simmons Bank Championship Caddie Shootout presented by Saracen Casino Resort

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 10, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- The spotlight will be on the PGA TOUR Champions caddies as they participate in the inaugural Caddie Shootout presented by Saracen Casino Resort, happening Tuesday, October 21 from 6-9 p.m. at Pleasant Valley Country Club.

This unique competition will randomly pair caddies in two-man teams for an alternate-shot shootout on Holes 16, 17 and 18 at Pleasant Valley Country Club. All teams will play simultaneously around the lake, with eliminations on each hole until one team claims the first-ever Caddie Shootout title.

Tickets are $75 and will include entry into the Western-themed event, access to the hospitality areas at holes 16, 17, and 18, live music by Gone Country, and food and drinks from popular Central Arkansas restaurants. Availability is limited, and fans are encouraged to secure tickets early via simmonsbankchampionship.com/tickets.

"This event is all about celebrating the skills and personalities of the caddies while creating a fun, Western-themed night for fans," said Freddie Black, Tournament Chair of Simmons Bank Championship. "We're excited to give spectators another way to experience the energy of tournament week, and we're especially grateful to Saracen Casino Resort for their support in bringing this unique event to life."

The Caddie Shootout is part of the Simmons Bank Championship presented by Stephens tournament week, October 20-26, at Pleasant Valley Country Club in Little Rock.
