

Alexandra Kosmitis Joins Simmons Bank - March 1, 2017

Alexandra Kosmitis of Pine Bluff, Ark., has joined Simmons Bank as executive project manager. In her new role, Kosmitis will lead and administer various executive and companywide projects.

Kosmitis, an attorney and a certified public accountant, previously worked as an associate at the Pine Bluff law firm Bridges Young Matthews & Drake. Among other duties at the firm, Kosmitis advised clients on estate planning and administration, assisted with the administration of qualified plans and researched civil litigation matters.

“Alexandra brings important skills to our company as both an attorney and CPA,” said George Makris Jr., Simmons’ chairman and chief executive officer. “She will play a key role as we continue our growth.”

Kosmitis holds degrees from the Sam Walton College of Business at the University of Arkansas, the University of Arkansas School of Law and the University of Florida Levin College of Law. She is extremely active in civic affairs, serving as the chairman of Pine Bluff Positive Youth Development and the finance chairman of the Pine Bluff Parks and Recreation Commission. She’s also a member of the board of the United Way of Southeast Arkansas, the Arts and Science Center for Southeast Arkansas and the Pine Bluff Chamber of Commerce.

About Simmons Bank

Simmons Bank (Member FDIC) is an Arkansas state-chartered bank that started as a community bank in 1903. Through the decades, Simmons has developed a full suite of financial products and services designed to meet the needs of individual consumers and business customers alike. Simmons has grown steadily to approximately $8.4 billion in assets, with nearly 180 branch and ATM locations throughout Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri and Tennessee. It is the subsidiary bank for Simmons First National Corporation (NASDAQ: SFNC), a publicly-traded bank holding company headquartered in Pine Bluff, Arkansas.
