

Bank SNB, a Division of Simmons Bank, Promotes Chris Hemphill to Commercial Banker - August 29, 2018

WICHITA, Kan. – Bank SNB, a division of Simmons Bank, has promoted Christina “Chris” Hemphill to commercial banker for the Wichita, Kansas market. Hemphill’s promotion follows five years at Bank SNB, where she previously served as branch manager and business development officer. Her focus will be small business loan requests.

“Through both natural talent and time-honed skills, Chris has greatly deepened and enriched Bank SNB’s client relationships,” said Pat Gearhart, Bank SNB market president for Wichita, Kansas. “We are delighted to promote one of our own to this key position, and Chris could not be more deserving of the increased responsibility.”

Hemphill serves as an executive board member for Wichita Women’s initiative. She previously served as a Grant Review Committee member for the United Way of the Plains, and as secretary for the Wichita Hispanic Chamber of Commerce Board.
