

Simmons Bank Breaks Ground on New Branch in White Hall - January 11, 2022

(White Hall, Ark.) – Simmons Bank (Simmons) celebrated the groundbreaking of a new branch in White Hall located at 1308 Robin Road. Construction on the new, approximately 4,700 square foot branch begins this month with the branch projected to be completed late summer of 2022.

“With the addition of the new branch in White Hall, Simmons Bank is continuing to deepen our commitment to Jefferson County,” said Chad Pittillo, Pine Bluff community president. “In addition to added convenience, the upgraded facility will also enable us to provide broader access to the products and services our customers’ desire to meet their evolving financial needs.”

The new, full-service location will provide a four-lane drive-thru access as well as an ATM with deposit capabilities. With ten associates, the branch will have mortgage and business loan capabilities and provide personal and business financial services.

Polk Stanley Wilcox Architects is the architectural firm of record and McClelland Consulting Engineers, Inc. serves as the engineering firm for the project. Redstone Construction Group will provide the sitework and Flynnco, Inc. will serve as the general contractor. Buckner Realty provided brokerage services for Simmons Bank.
